Although Monuments are often perceived simply as another form of public sculpture they are first and foremost reminders. We build the Memorial to the Canadian Journalist Memorial because those people are important to us for the values of the meaning "Freedom of Speech"

In addition to communicating our beliefs and values from generation to generation, the monument also helps us to come to terms with the unknown, the unexplained and the mysteries of life- as well as with our deepest emotions, such as the pain we feel at the death of the Canadian Journalists were killed in action.

SURVIVAL THROUGH CELEBRATION:

"The past is not dead history" one man has written. It is the living material out of which man makes himself and builds the future." From our past comes the timeless, universal, and elemental truths that governed our earliest evolution determined our gradual development as human beings over aeons of time.

THE CANADIAN JOURNALIST MEMORIAL:

The monument welcomes all tourists and visitors to walk up few steps to see it. There, they can see the allegory a statue of a journalist expressing his work on duty.

The inscriptions reads as follows: " In memory of Canadian Journalists who losts their lives in war zones. "

It will be life size bronze statue, cast on the base by black granite. A Memorial Monument is influenced by the naturalist school of arts, created by a well-known Canadian Sculptor in Toronto named Pham, Thê Trung. The artist escaped from Vietnam by boat to a refugee camp in Thailand and was later granted immigrant status by Canada in 1980 .
